The overall rating is the average sum result of the ratings on each individual. Admittedly Dredd comes off as more of the 'macho' thug but then again that is why he's the Paladin of the Law. Why, oh why, should the reader have effectively to pay for two covers? This time The Batman/Judge Dredd Collection setting for the carnage is Mega-City One, which gives the story a different feel to the others as most of their action takes place in Gotham City. Batman will not kill in the pursuit of justice. They do, perhaps, have a similarity, in that they both have their fans that have grossly misunderstood their appeals, and believe that they are unironic portrayals of genuine honest-to-goodness heroes, but even that's not given a look-in at all. Meanwhile, Mean Machine demolishes a bar and is directed to the same concert.
